POETRY.

MRS WOOD.—By LORD HARRIS.

Sweet child of song! I could forever gaze
 Upon thine eye, where wildest beauty's beaming;
For most enchanting and o'erpowering rays
 Are ever from thy velvet fringes streaming.
But all the winning loveliness that plays [ing,
 Around thy form, and chains the soul when dream
All the bright beams of thy quick glancing eye,
We cannot gaze upon without a sigh.

Care seems to have usurped the work of time,
 Though time hath lightly marked thee with his fingers·
Sorrow hath lain upom thy heart its lime,
 And many a tear upon thine eye-lid lingers;
The thankless worldlings round thee rung a chime
 Of accusations—truth has quelled the ringers,
Though I have said thus from an honest feeling,
The Critic's privilege is o'er me stealing.

You certainly are beautiful, and know it.
 Although at times you look pale as a ghost;
You've read this maxim, doubtless, and oft shew it—
 "Beauty, when unadorned, 's adorned the most."
And then your voice, why truly I avow it,
 One of a mighty compass you can boast—
But when you sing I think it, for my part,
Merely a finished lecture on the art.

Gleanings from Antiquity.—Valerian, the Roman Emperor, about the middle of the third century, was conquered by Sapor, King of Persia, dragged chained through all the cities of that vast kingdom, and treated with greater indignity than the meanest slave; for that haughty conqueror made him his footstool when he mounted his horse. He flayed him (alive, some say,) dressed his skin, dyed it red, hung it up, and showed it to all strangers.

When a country is grown vicious, industry decays, the people become effeminate and unfit for labor. To maintain luxury, the great ones must oppress the meanest; and to avoid this oppression, the meaner sort are often compelled to seditious tumults or open rebellion.

Some bad examples are more mischeivous than crimes; and more States have perished because the people violated morals, than because they broke the laws.

Nations have often been deceived into slavery by men of shining abilities. Miserable is the spirit of a nation, that suffers itself to be enslaved by shining metal.

Few crimes either private, or relating to the public, can be committed by those whose minds are early seasoned with the principle of loving and promoting the welfare of their native country. No great thing was ever done, but by such as have preferred the love of their country to all other considerations; and wherever this public spirit reigns, and where this zeal for the common good governs in the minds of men, that state will flourish, and increase in riches and power, and wherever it declines, or is set at nought, weakness, disorder and poverty must be expected. This love to their native soil, where it has been deeply rooted, and where it could be preserved, has made little cities famous and invincible, as Sparta, Corinth, Thebes, and Athens; and from thence all the Roman greatness took its rise.

Helen.—By Miss Edgeworth.—"If signs of the progress of time were to be sought for in the successive works of a voluminous writer, those of Miss Edgeworth would be most fallacious. They tell of no change—no age in the authoress; there is no wrinkle in her page. The new novel, "Helen," is quite worthy to rank with our authoress's happiest productions. In every respect it is as vigorous, as fresh, as interesting as its predecessors. Like them, it is intended to establish sound social morals, illustrated by characters finely drawn, and colored with great force, and the nicest detail. The sustained spirit and consistency with which the whole is worked up, the cleverness of its dialogues, the freshness of the feeling which frequently breathes through it, are all almost admirable. We congratulate Miss Edgeworth—'May she live a thousand years.'"—Morning Herald.

A Pedestrian.—An Englishman arrived in our city on Monday evening from the South, who has attracted a good deal of notice. He has travelled on foot through all the countries of Europe, without any other known motive than the gratification of his own curiosity.—The apparent insufficiency of this reason for so much fatigue, has brought upon him the suspicion of official agents and caused him to be repeatedly arrested. He is now examining our country as he has examined Europe.—He is said to be a man of property and intelligence, though his appearance indicate neither. His habiliments are mean, and all his baggage consists of a small bundle and a cage which contains the only companion of his travels—a favorite canary bird.—N. Y. Jour. Com.

Lesson to Male Coquettes.—A Dublin paper mentions a melancholy affair which not long since took place near Boyle, in the county of Roscommon, in Ireland. It will serve as a lesson to young men who engage the affections of susceptible damsels, and then without any apparent cause desert them.

The daughter of a respectable farmer listened to the addresses of a young gentleman in the neighborhood, and conceived for him a strong affection, although at first she received his professions with reluctance. The story of their mutual attachment of course became known, and the young woman finding that her lover grew less ardent, and expressed a reluctance to comply with his matrimonial engagements, one evening resolved to be finally informed of his intentions, and invited him to tea, in the absence of her parents, when peremptorily putting the question to him, and receiving an evasive answer, she lodged the contents of a loaded pistol in his breast. She was immediately apprehended, and avowed herself guilty of the murder, at the same time declaring her motives.—Merc. Journal.

THE MORNING POST.

THURSDAY, APRIL 24, 1834.

The Protest.—The people will read this unanswerable state paper with admiration. It unmasks the faction in the Senate. The shot has taken between wind and water, if we may judge from seeing all the mutineers at the pumps. The harpoon has gone home to the vitals—and the leviathan spouts up spray in torrents, giving token of unwonted agony.

The appearance of this document has redoubled the clamour of the opposition presses against the administration. The money market has ceased to afford them the means of creating discontent and embarrassments by false alarms. But there is still an excitability in the public mind, of which they are determined to take advantage. They have been put down on every old topic connected with the Bank controversy—and now seize greedily upon every additional opinion of the administration in relation to that subject, to reiterate their worn out tirades of deliberate falsehood and malignant abuse. Conscious guilt, in relation to their star-chamber impeachment of the President, though it has not made the opposition Senators dumb, has made them furious. They cannot answer the reasoning of the Protest, but they seize hold of whatever touches the Bank interests, and evading the charge of usurped authority—the double usurpation of the rights of the House of Representatives, and of the Executive department—rail in their old set terms about despotism, an invaded constitution, plundered treasury, the union of the purse and sword, and the impending horrors of Executive usurpation. This rant has been already refuted and exposed, as applied to the removal of the deposites, but is thundered out all over again, at the old time-honored doctrines contained in the Protest. The opposition press rails again without rhyme, or reason.

The Boston Daily Advertiser was wont to be a sober, if not always a sound paper. It now almost rivals the Atlas in bombast, bitterness, and misrepresentation. That paper of Tuesday talks of the "portentous peril which hangs, like the black and lowering masses of a thunder cloud, over the well being and the prospects of the country." "The business of the country," continues this hard working alarmist—"its prosperity and happiness, have been bound hand and foot, and thrown into the consuming fire of the Executive experiment!" So much for the raving generalities—now for the specific charge, take it for the thousandth time:—

"The whole treasure of the nation has been wrested from its constitutional protectors, and placed beyond the reach of the people, beneath the bolts and bars of Andrew Jackson, to be distributed by him as he pleases, when he pleases, where he pleases, and to whom he pleases! And in the mean time, the President of the United States, surrounded and guarded by a host of parasites, irresponsible to the people, defying the people, is equally inaccessible to the people, and to his constitutional advisers."

The whole treasure of the nation placed beyond the reach of the people, to be distributed as Andrew Jackson pleases!!! The Advertiser knows every syllable of this accusation to be false—and cannot make a decent show of proving a single syllable of it true. The President irresponsible to the people, defying the people, and inaccessible to the people!!!

Such is the artful and intemperate slang to which one of the most "respectable" papers of the "moral and religious party" can descend, for the purpose of keeping up an excitement among their own deluded followers, and keeping their chapfallen faction together till another election. If true at all—if just in any part of it—the charge is really applicable to the policy pursued, and furiously defended, by the U. S. Bank, and its retainers.

The "treasury of the nation" was really "beyond the reach of the people," when in the clutches of that corrupt and bullying institution. The people could not control the Bank through its charter, for its restraints were broken through like cobwebs. To the Government Directors its proceedings were unknown and inaccessible. And it openly defied the people by wholesale bribery, on a scale worthy of the scarlet turpitude of British India, by resisting payment of the public debt, by electioneering intrigues, and heaping abuse and calumny upon the President. The "whole treasure of the nation distributed as Andrew Jackson pleases"—forsooth! For "Andrew Jackson," read Nicholas Biddle, who is chairman of committees appointed by himself, to whom full authority is given over "the whole treasure of the nation," to squander as corruptly as they please, without appropriation, specification, report, or voucher! Yet the corrupt parasites, and noisy partizans of the Bank, who justify this impudently illegal mode of conducting its fiscal affairs, and can see nothing but lawful and praiseworthy skill in such glaring breaches of its charter, no sooner behold the public treasure in the custody of those responsible to the law, and dealing with it according to law, under the supervision of the President—who cannot touch a dollar of it, with or without an appropriation by Congress—and, even with an appropriation, cannot withdraw a dollar—for every cent must be drawn by the joint assent of the Secretary of the Treasury, the Comptroller, the Register, and the Treasurer—than their jaundiced vision can behold nothing but "the whole treasure of the nation placed beyond the reach of the people, distributed as Andrew Jackson pleases, who is irresponsible to the people, defies the people, and is inaccessible to the people!"

How blind are the followers of the discount king! But neither the people, nor Andrew Jackson, their faithful servant, and approved champion, need the admonitions of Nullifiers, and Hartford Convention Federalists, and Bank borrowers and attornies, to teach Democrats and Democratic rulers, the duty which the honest public servant owes to the people, or that which an enlightened people owe to hemselves and their posterity.

"The question immediately before the Senate was one of minor consequence; it might be called a question of small import, except for the effect which the decision might have upon the Senate itself. In that point of view it might be a question of some moment; for without reference to individuals, it was essential to the cause of free Governments, that every Department of the Government, the Senate inclusive, should so act as to preserve to itself the respect and the confidence of the country. The immediate question was, upon the rejection of the President's message. It was moved to reject it—to reject it, not after it was considered, but before it was considered! and thus to tell the American people that their President shall not be heard—shall not be allowed to plead his defence—in the presence of the body that condemned him, neither before the condemnation, nor after it! This is the motion and certainly no enemy to the Senate could wish it to miscarry. The President, in the conclusion of his message, has respectfully requested that his defence might be entered upon the Journal of the Senate—upon that same journal which contains the record of his conviction. This is the request of the President.—Will the Senate deny it? Will they refuse this act of sheer justice and common decency? Will they go further, and not only refuse to place it on the journal, but refuse even to suffer it to remain in the Senate? Will they refuse to permit it to remain on file, but send it back, or throw it out of doors, without condescending to reply to it? for that is the exact import of the motion now made! Will Senators exhaust their minds, and their bodies also, in loading this very communication with epithets, and then say that it shall not be received? Will they receive memorials, resolutions, essays from all that choose to abuse the President, and not receive a word of defence from him? Will they continue the spectacle which has been presented here for three months—a daily presentation of attacks upon the President from all that choose to attack him, young and old, boys and men—attacks echoing the very sound of this resolution, and which are not only received and filed here, but printed also, and referred to a committee and introduced, each one, with a lauded commentary of set phrase? Are the Senate to receive all these, and yet refuse to receive from the object of all this attack one word of answer? In this point of view—as a question concerning the Senate itself, it may become material to the Senate, in a country and in an age when no tribunal is too high for public opinion to reach it, it may become material to the Senate, in such a country and such an age, to reject and throw out of doors, the calm and temperate defence of the President, in the midst of the reception of a thousand memorials and resolutions, condemning him for the very act which he is not allowed to defend? Is he to be the only citizen who is not to be heard by the Senate? Him whom it seems to be lawful for every one whose education and manners qualifies him for the application of billingsgate rhetoric, to lavish it upon him. Rejected or not, that communication cannot be secreted from the eyes of the American People. It has been read, and will be printed. An independent press will carry it to the extremities of the country, and hand it down to succeeding generations. It will be compared with speeches, delivered for three months in this Capitol, against this President; and an enlightened and upright community will decide between the violent President who has violated the constitution and the laws, and the meek and gentle Senators who have sat in judgment upon him for it. The People will see these things—will compare them together—will judge for themselves; and that judgment, in this free and happy land, will be the final and supreme reward, from which there is no appeal."

The misrepresentations of the numerous writers in the Atlas, whether they emanate from the petit rioter at Faneuil Hall, or the whole Committee of Public Safety, we shall not often notice; but the assertion that we have endeavored to promote riots, or that we had any agency in getting up the late meeting of Irishmen, more than inserting in the Post the call for that meeting, which was handed to us by as peaceable and respectable an individual as any in Boston, is absolutely false—and the author of it, let him belong to the young men or the old men, is a wilful calumniator. The story that the Irish had any idea of offering violence, or that their meeting was called for any other purpose than that expressed in their Resolutions, is ungrounded and ridiculous. We understand that the Editor of the Atlas intimated to the Mayor his apprehension that an assault was intended upon his office, and that the worthy head of the city expressed a hope to several of those whom he supposed would take part in the meeting, that nothing of the kind would occur, and was promptly assured that his fears were perfectly groundless. But it appears that this did not quiet the agitated nerves of our excited neighbor, and accordingly he called to his aid the "distressed young men," armed, we suppose, with their little gold-headed, whale-bone canes, to keep off the awful Irish. The Atlas flatters itself too much in supposing that any abuse it could utter against the Irish, would be deemed of sufficient consequence by them, to excite any emotions but those of pity and contempt.

The Editor of the Atlas is a very uneasy sort of a gentleman, and we think a very imprudent one. We have no desire to carry party warfare into private relations—it is bitter enough when confined to its proper channels. We have borne toward the conductor of the Atlas, individually, none but kind feelings—but he appears determined to drive us from our position and force us into a controversy of personal crimination and recrimination, which would be as disgusting to the public, as unprofitable to the parties engaged. But we shrink from nothing which it may be necessary for us to attempt. If our opponents force us into a contest repugnant to our wishes, when engaged, we will fight to the last. Our opinions we shall always express, so long as God may give us power to utter them, regardless of the threats or the violence of any man, or any party of men.

The Portsmouth Gazette contradicts the story published in the Courier about the "Jackson Riot" in that town. The boot was on t'other leg.

EXPENSES OF GOVERNMENT.

The Nationals are endeavoring to impress upon the public the belief that the present administration has been prodigal in its expenditures—as a complete refutation of this allegation, we re-publish the following extracts from the Washington Globe:—

The whole expenditures during Mr Adams' administration were it is true, $16,219,338 less than those during Gen. Jackson's first term of office. This has been sounded far and wide, in speeches and newspapers, as an evidence of Gen. Jackson's extravagance, and disregard of the principles of economy and retrenchment he has always professed.

Yet, in looking at the details, it is seen that $12,430,780 of the above sum consists in an excess of money, which he has paid beyond Mr Adams, in discharge of the National Debt! Thus, three-fourths of this monstrous extravagance vanishes at once, in relieving the public burthens, by carrying out, as rapidly as possible, the democratic principle of freeing the People from debt and taxation.

Hence, by this high misdemeanor of Gen. Jackson, the farmer can now get his salt at a duty of 10, instead of 20 cents per bushel—his coffee at a duty of 2, instead of 5 cents per pound—his tea free, instead of 20 or 100 cents per pound—his molasses at half the former impost per gallon—his sugar and wine at a reduced rate—and many of the other necessaries, as well as most of the comforts of life, at a much lower duty, or entirely exonerated from any tax whatever.

But in what reckless scheme has he squandered the other four millions difference?

The sum of $4,623,823 more than Mr Adams has he expended, under the sanction of Congress, under the head of fortifications, arsenals, &c. State claims during the late war, Indian titles, treaties, and pensions.

These include over half a million to Massachusetts herself, and South Carolina, both now violently attacking him through their Senators. Large sums for fulfilling Mr Jefferson's own contract with the Western States for the extension of the Cumberland road; and much more for extinguishing Indians titles, and rewarding the decrepid soldiers of the revolution. Recollect, also, that a large part of these measures was of a permanent character—many of them were commenced under former administrations—all of them were approved by both Houses of Congress—and very few of them originated, or were recommended, by the Executive, except those in relation to the Indians, and which last have been the means of throwing new land into the market, that will, in due time remunerate the Treasury the whole difference of four or five millions.

Here we might, under the head of economy and extravagance, stop in triumph, having shown the debt paid, and the lands purchased, alone exceed in value the whole difference.—But as the opposition has invited and provoked the comparison between the expenditures of the two administrations, we will proceed to state, that on an analysis, it appears General Jackson, during the above term, expended, under the head of Foreign Intercourse, $1,139,222 less than Mr Adams, and under the head of the Navy, $1,089,922 less. These expenditures generally depend upon estimates made by the administration, and the appropriations in the main conform to them, and for these the administration is responsible; and here the contrast is striking. But for expenditures under the miscellaneous head, for instance, it is Congress that is chiefly answerable; they seldom depend on executive recommendation or official estimates, and their excess in one or another administration, is no test of the policy or economy of the President.

But the moment we reach items that emanate from the administration, we find a retrenchment by Gen. Jackson of more than two millions. We find likewise what is of equal moment, and what constitutes a prominent characteristic in his administration abroad, that it has been infinitely more efficient than any which preceded it, although its expenses, connected with that head, have been so much reduced.

Our Foreign Ministers have succeeded, at every foreign court, in obtaining indemnity for great and long standing injuries—our agents have visited new courts and formed new and important treaties of commerce with both old and new powers—and our citizens and commerce in the remotest quarters of the world have had the shield of the Navy flung over them, and aggressions averted or avenged. Our character has become more widely known and respected. More than eight millions of dollars have been added and recovered to our national capital. The hearts of numberless widows and orphans, as well as of suffering merchants who have survived their misfortunes, have been cheered, though late, and the remainder of their pilgrimage here rendered more smooth and joyous.

We have not only avowed, but acted, as if it would hereafter be a national characteristic with Americans, never to submit to wrong or to demand what was not right.

Not a single claim of importance on any foreign nation now remains unadjusted. This unparalleled position of our happy Union, as well as its entire freedom from public debt, will mark this era in the future history of our country.

Nor will it tell any better in the history of the opposition hereafter than it does now, that they threaten him with invective, though he has accomplished this fortunate result abroad with a diminished expenditure, and has shown no extravagance in his policy at home, except in paying fourteen millions more than his predecessor within the same length of time towards the discharge of our once burthensome debt.

We learn that a serious riot took place among the laborers on the rail road, in Mansfield, on Monday. About four hundred of them struck for higher wages, armed themselves with clubs, and attacked one of the contractors, whose life was put in imminent peril. The High Sheriff of Norfolk, with the assistance of a company of Militia, succeeded in arresting nine of the ringleaders, who were lodged in the gaol at Dedham. Mr L. Sweet, a deputy Sheriff of the county, also called out a company of militia, and arrested six of the rioters, who were also committed to jail on Tuesday. The militia remained under arms until Tuesday, when order was fully restored.

An altercation took place in the printing office of the Mobile (Alabama) Register, on the 4th instant, between Samuel Stockton and Charles A. Stewart, printers, which terminated in the death of the former, who during the contest received two thrusts from a dirk held by Stewart. One of the wounds reached the heart, and he survived the injury only about 35 minutes

POLICE COURT.

[Wednesday.]

Cuffee's Exception.—Miss Clarissa Hall had been working hard for a living, so she had, poor creature; but her employer wouldn't pay her a cent of her wages, and turned her out of the house for dunning him for them. This was all proper enough, to be sure; for though he acted dishonestly in cheating, yet it must be confessed by all spungers and fancy glass blowers, that she had no right to dun him. No extremity can justify such an uncivil procedure; for the lawyers—the only disinterested men among us, they being equally ready to engage on either side, for the same pay—assure us, that the law, through their mediation, is ever ready to afford redress in a civil way.

Miss Clarissa, having been thus deservedly dismissed from her service, sought shelter in a famous oyster shop in Ann street, where her beauty, brightly beaming through her tears, ignited the train of soft affections in the bosoms of a number of sailors, who were regaling themselves with bumpers and stewed oysters. As they all had an eye upon her, it behoved each of them to speak her fair; but there are different ways of approaching the ladies, depending mainly on the caste of the beau. A Dandy asks the dear object of his attention, if she has seen the last Number of the World of Fashion; a Critic, if she has seen the last "Quarterly;" a Sentimental Counter-jumper, if she has seen the last ode to Endymion; a promoted Subaltern, if she has seen the last "Order" from the War-office; a "Phrenologist" inquires if she is a believer in bumps, and discovers at the first glance, that she has Benevolence, Reverence, Conscientiousness, Ideality, Tune and Language, developed with extraordinary prominence on her caput, and by the same discovery the lady is equally convinced of the soundness of the science, and the singular sagacity of her adorer; but the sailor, the "true Yankee sailor," when he adventures for the smiles of a mistress, bluntly asks her to take a glass of grog;—and the jolly set, that surrounded Clarissa, were true to their country and colors, and saluted her with the best at the bar, and to each of them she responded severally and particularly in kind, till the lights in the room multiplied magnificently. In a short time, she lost her reckoning, and abandoned by her pilot Reason, she lurched and reeled into the arms of one of her admirers; but as each of his messmates had contributed his portion of ammunition to capture her, they thought it was but fair that they should share the prize; but a lady's heart "is one and indivisible," like Monsieur's Grand Empire; and, like the said Empire, will only submit to the sway of him, who has the fortune to win her. It being one of those cases where "might makes right," the loving lords of the ocean went to work to settle it, while Mr Constable steps in and carries off the heroine to jail—an unpleasant and unexpected incident in the affray, which Jack Junk discovered just as he floored his last competitor.

A colored witness, who was questioned as to the character of the oyster-shop, stated it to be one, which "no respectable women visited, except drunken ones, that goes a tagging round with sailors." The same character applies very well to the House of Correction, to which Miss Clarissa Hall was consigned for the ensuing three months.

Mind your deal.—Two gentlemen, joint-keepers of a "Coffee House," were looed yesterday,—the senior partner to the amount of $20,00, and costs, and the junior, $8,00, and costs—for permitting gambling to be carried on in their premises. They were too polite to contend with his honor the Commonwealth.

A man missing.—Mr William Dunn, of Ticonderoga, N. Y., left his residence, on the 7th of Feb. 1833, with a load of venison, for this city. He was traced here, where it was ascertained that he disposed of a part of his venison—since which time, nothing has been heard of him. It is feared that he has lost his life by violence.

It is said that Messrs. Fisher, Daughty and Harding, instead of contributing to the Athenæum the present season, will open an exhibition of pictures on their own account, at Harding's Gallery, School Street.

Mr W. P. M'Kay addressed the meeting of Irish citizens, assembled at Democratic Hall, on Monday evening last in a very animated speech, which was received with great applause. We hope to be able to publish it in the course of a few days.

The opposition endeavor to destroy the popularity of the Protest, by ascribing to it sentiments which it does not contain. But the plan will not succeed—the people will read for themselves; and reading, understand and sustain the principles embraced in this able and conclusive document.

A powerful dose.—Bennett, one of the editors purchased by the Bank, announces his determination "to march cooly and deliberately into the bowels of the Kitchen Cabinet."—Such a dose would physic an iron statue.

A little girl was severely injured on Tuesday at the rail road, while playing upon the circular plate where the locomotive is turned off the tract. The flesh was torn from one of her feet, as deep as the bone.

We saw an elegant passenger car for the Boston and Providence Rail Road, in Washington street, yesterday.

The Lynn Record, (anti-Jackson) calls the Boston Atlas an infamous and degraded paper.

Black Snakes.—A boy in Leverett, by the name of Asa Learnerd, 11 years of age, killed seventeen black snakes, a few days since. He found them in one place, sunning, near to the den where they had wintered. The shortest was five feet in length, and some of them over six. One of the snakes, we understand, sprung at the lad several times.—Greenfield Gaz.

Virginia.—We have private accounts from all quarters of Virginia, of the most cheering character. The administration majority in forty odd counties is now sixteen. That is eight changes from one side to the other. If the election in the Senatorial District of King William, King and Queen, goes in favor of the administration (and Harrison will go to King William about 200 ahead,) then the majority in the Senate of Virginia will be for the administration. The Petersburg Intelligencer pretends that Dr R. May (of Petersburg) is an anti. He is, we learn by a letter from Virginia, a strong friend of the administration. Thus we go!—Wash. Globe.

From Havana.—By the brig Emerald from Havana we have received papers to 7th inst. In the paper of the 5th we find an account of the funeral of Com. LABORDE, Commander-in-Chief of the Spanish squadron on the West India station. His remains were interred in that city on the previous day with all the honors due to his distinguished station.—N. Y. Gaz.

From Tobasco.—Capt. Powers, arrived yesterday, states that a civil war is again raging in Tobasco in consequence of a circular of the Commandant General, to disband the Militia, who had refused to give up their arms. The clergy had taken part with the Mexican authorities, and the people had resorted to arms.—Ibid.

George Stubbins.—This individual was charged some time since with the murder of Miss Cunningham. A letter from Elkson states that the Grand Jury of Cecil County have found a true bill against him, and that his trial commenced on Wednesday last.—News.

At Fayetteville, N. C. a considerable quantity of rain has fallen, the river rising to a height almost equal to the last spring freshet, in consequence of which no mails have been received.

The prospect of the crops in parts of North Carolina and Virginia are rather disheartening in consequence of the late heavy rains and flooding of the low grounds.

The Woods are drawing excellent houses at the Tremont. If possible, they have improved since their last visit. Their unrivalled vocal powers have quite enchanted the Bostonians—naturally cool and phlegmatic as they are—and there can be no doubt that they would fill Mr Barry's theatre, for a much longer time than they will be allowed, by prior engagements, to remain here. Their popularity here is not of an evanescent nature—and it will be during this, as it has been in all prior engagements, that the number of delighted listeners has increased with each successive appearance. We are happy to see that Cinderella is announced for this evening, and our pleasure is much increased by Johnson's restoration to Pumpolino—which he plays very creditably.

MAYNARD & NOYES' INK POWDER AND LIQUID INK.—In 1818, the American manufacturers determined to furnish the American public with Ink Powder and Ink, which should satisfy those who apply it to the most important uses in banks, public offices, schools, &c. and succeeded most fully, as the following testimonials will show:

American Bank, Boston, Aug. 18, 1831

Messrs Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—I have been using your black liquid Ink in this Bank for two years past and have no hesitation in pronouncing it superior to any I have heretofore used. Respectfully yours,

WM. H. ODIORNE, Cashier.

Boston, May 30th, 1831.

Messrs Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—I use no other Ink but yours on the Books of this Institution, and take pleasure in expressing my entire satisfaction with its appearance, and in recommending it to the public as a superior article.

Respectfully, your ob't servant,

THOS. BROWN, Book-keeper, Atlantic Bank.

Register of Deeds' Office, Boston, June 15, 1830.

Messrs Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—Having used your Ink about seven years, I have the pleasure of informing you, that it fully answers my expectations; and from the appearance of the Records in my office, I am satisfied that it is superior to any I have ever used. It flows well and gives a beautiful permanent black,

Yours respectfully,

HENRY ALLINE.

Cheshire Bank, Keene, N. H. Jan. 1, 1831.

Messrs Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—Yours of Dec 27, was duly received; in reply to which I briefly state, that I have used the Ink Powder manufactured by you, and no other, for more than ten years last past. I think it makes the best Ink I ever used, and while the quality remains pure, I shall not think of looking for any other kind.

Yours, respectfully,

N. DANA' Cashier.

Register's Office, New York, Oct. 25, 1831.

Messrs Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—Having used your Ink about six years, we have no hesitation in pronouncing it superior to any we have heretofore used, and as such cheerfully recommend it. Respectfully, your obedient servants,

JAMES McMURRAY,
DAVID GLADD,
GEORGE MORTIMER.

Patriotic Bank, Washington City, April 10, 1824.

Messrs Maynard & Noyes,

Gentlemen—For the last year I have been using your Black Ink. I have been much pleased with it, and have no hesitation in recommending it to all who are desirous of giving permanency to their writing.

O. CARR, Cashier.

Bank of Michigan, Detroit, July 5, 1830.

We have used Ink, prepared from Messrs Maynard & Noyes' Ink Powder, for several years past and are quite satisfied with it. It flows easily from the pen and has a brilliancy and permanency of color which are not commonly found in other Ink.

C. C. TROWBRIDGE, Cashier.

BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

We are sorry to have to add to the above testimonials the evidence of Counterfeiters, who, by selecting it for imitation, declare their opinion that it stands foremost in commanding a ready and extensive sale. To enable purchasers to distinguish the genuine from the counterfeit and thus protect themselves from the fraud, the manufacturers have adopted a new label, composed of intermingled colors of black and red

COMPOUND CHLORINE TOOTH WASH for Cleansing and Preserving the Teeth and Gums and Cleansing the Mouth.

THE CHLORINE TOOTH WASH effectually cleanses the Teeth, and will answer the purposes of the best dentrifice. It contains no acid or any ingredient which can in any case be injurious. It will also be found to keep the brush itself free from all impurities

The Compound Chlorine Tooth Wash has the further advantage of Cleansing the mouth also—and of removing whatever is offensive in the breath. It hardens the gums and is a valuable remedy for canker or soreness of the mouth. It may also be used with the greatest advantage as a gargle for sore throat. In fine it preserves the teeth and mouth in all respects in a clean and healthy condition. It is agreeable to the taste. Gentlemen who are in the habit of using tobacco, will find that the tooth wash will speedily remove all the effects of it from the mouth.

That the public may rest assured of the very salutary effects of this composition, the following recommendations from gentlemen of the highest respectability are submitted

From J W Webster, M. D. Erving Professor of Chemistry in Harvard University.

Harvard University, Cambridge, March 14, 1831.

Messrs. Lowe & Reed. Gentlemen—I have examined the Compound Chlorine Tooth Wash received from you, and have no hesitation in stating my belief that it will answer the purpose for which you have compounded it. I have discovered in it no ingredient which can prove injurious to the teeth.

Yours, &c. J. W. WEBSTER.

From Sylvanus Plympton, M. D.

Messrs Lowe & Reed. Gentlemen—I have frequently administered your Compound Chlorine Tooth Wash in various affections of the mouth and throat—and relief has been immediate and permanent. In a neuralgic affection of the face and head, arising from a depraved state of the gums and defective teeth, which resisted many powerful, approved medicines, this Wash acted like a charm. I hesitate not to give it my entire approbation for the purposes for which it was made, and consider it one of the most safe, pleasant, and effectual articles of the kind ever offered to the public. I am yours, &c., S. PLYMPTON

Cambridge, Dec. 9, 1831.

From Mr. A. A Hayes, Operative Chemist and Superintendent of the Roxbury Chemical Works.

Messrs Lowe & Reed. Gentlemen--Having examined the bottle of Compound Chlorine Tooth Wash you gave me, and become acquainted with its composition, it affords me pleasure to express my belief, that it well deserves the high reputation it has acquired.—It does not contain any substance in solution or suspension, which can either chemically or mechanically injure the teeth, and observation and experience confirm the opinion that its effects on the mouth, are salutary and very agreeable.

With respect, A. A. HAYES,

Roxbury Laboratory, Feb. 8th, 1832.

POSITIVE, OR NO PAY.

MRS. HILL'S COUGH DROPS, OR VEGETABLE HEALTH RESTRATIVE.

Prepared entirely from Vegetables.

MORE than forty years have now elapsed, since the receipt was given me by my uncle, a celebrated Physician, at a time that I was troubled with a very bad Cough and Cold. After taking one dose, I found immediate relief, and a few doses cured me entirely; the effects were astonishing quick, and the numerous instances of the wonderful efficacy of these drops on different people, has induced me to put them up in Phials, with directions under the impression it would be a public benefit. And as that is my sole aim—and to convince the public that is all, and as a sure guarantee against quackery and deception, I authorise my agents to return the money to all those that do not get relief by their returning the bottle and directions. The relief and absolute cure, particularly of those numerous and complicated disorders arising from neglected colds, is amply attested by the acknowledged approbation of those who are now restored to pefect health, as well as many in the decline of life who frankly acknowledge having received great relief from the use of them in the following diseases, viz:—Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Spitting of Blood, Hooping Cough, Difficulty of Breathing, Influenza, Quinsea, Phthisic, Croup, and all disorders arising from colds. Price 37½ cents per bottle.

For sale wholesale and retail, by J. P. Hall, Jr., sole agent, No. 1, Union street, corner of Elm street; Asahel Boyden, Hancock street; Charles Holbrook, Leverett street; E. S. Holden, corner of Beacon and Chs streets; A. Geyer, Hanover st.; John White, J., School st.

ORIENTAL SHAVING SOAP.—A new and important discovery!! This article is justly celebrated for its peculiar properties in rendering the Beard soft and easy to cut. It supercedes other soaps on account of its liquid form, making the process of shaving easier and quicker. The article needs no recommendation but one simple trial, which wil prove its qualities.

Directions—Drop three drops into a cup, wet your brush in warm water and rub it, and it will produce an elegant fine lather which will not dry for hours.

COMPOUND VEGETABLE SYSTEMATIC PILLS.

PREPARED by A. STEWART. Which under the divine blessing have been the means of restoring to health and activity many persons suffering various diseases, completely given over by physicians.

1. Strong Cathartic or Purgative Pills.—They are useful in almost every complaint where Cathartics are necessary, and they are perfectly safe in all conditions of ill health when it is necessary to clear the Primæ Viæ or Stomach and Bowels of its superfluous matter and to prepare for the use of the other Pills as recommended for the complaint. They are a certain and immediate remedy for the Teneia or Worms and all sudden attacks of Bilious and Colic complaints. These Pills do not interfere with the ordinary occupations of the patient.

2. Mild Cathartic and Aperient Pills.—These Pills are recommended in most cases after a few doses of No 1. They are a certain remedy for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Jaundice and all Bilious complaints, loss of appetite, Headach and Piles.

3. Mild Aperient, Deobstruent or Female Pills.—These are recommended in almost all complaints which Females are subject to, such as obstructions of customary evacuations and all nervous affections, sick Headach, pains and palpitation of the heart and breast Weakness, Debility, Dyspepsia, Flatulency, Costiveness, Inflammations, Stranguary and indeed all complaints incident to the human frame. They are perfectly harmless, and may be taken in all cases and all stages; they will neither hinder business nor amusement, and will, if persisted in, prevent and carry off numerous complaints, which are daily sending many of our fairest and worthiest of creation to an untimely grave.

4. Ulcers, Consumptive, Alterative Pills.—These Pills are designed for Consumptive complaints in all their different stages, and may be taken with perfect safety; they act altogether as an alterative The same kind of Pills have twice saved my life in consumption, when every thing was prepared for my funeral except the coffin; to these and to Pill No 2, I owe my present wonderful recovery from a complication of diseases accompanied with ulcers of the Phagadænic nature, which for nearly 9 years bid defiance to the first Physicians in Massachusetts and New York, and was pronounced by them incurable. The Pills are pure vegetable, but act very powerfully on the system without producing any dangerous or disagreeable effects. Used with great success in Herpes, Exedens and Phagadænic Ulcers or Erysipelas, Scrofula and Calious eating Ulcers.*

5. Rheumatic Pills.—These operate by stool, urine, perspiration and as a general alterative. Rheumatism is often accompanied with pains in various parts of the body, and other diseases such as Scrofula, Scurvy, White Swelling, Gout, Syphilis. Where nothing is supposed to be present, but Gout or Rheumatism, they are an infallible remedy.*

6. Asthmatic Pills.—An infallible remedy for Coughs Colds, Catarrh, Whooping Cough, Asthma and Dropsical complaints; they are expectorant and slightly purgative.*

7 Syphilis or Antivenereal, Chemical Pills.—All my Pills with the exception of these are compounded from the vegetable kingdom alone, but as there are a great many complicated diseases frequently accompanying Rheumatism, Scrofula, Gout, pains in the head and joints, which are generally worse when the patient is in bed, such of these as do not give way to some of the foregoing Vegetable Pills, as there may be some remains of Viris, in its confirmed state, lurking in the system or in other words mingled with the juices of the body, whether from a hereditary taint, or some imprudence in youth, and as it is well known, or ought to be known, that there is but one certain cure for this complaint whatever pretenders and quacks may tell you, thousands are annually carried off by this direful complaint

INDIGESTION, JAUNDICE AND BILIOUS COMPLAINTS. ANDERSON'S VEGETABLE ELIXIR, for Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Jaundice and Bilious Complaints; weakness of the Stomach and Bowels, and consequent loss of appetite; nervous complaints, headach, sour stomach, flatulence and habitual costiveness.

This medicine is composed entirely of vegetable substances, is perfectly safe in its operation, and may be given to children or persons of the most delicate habit without the least risk of inconvenience.

The uniform success which has attended the use of it where it has been extensively used, in Boston and various other parts of the United States, and in the West Indies, attested by disinterested and highly respectable persons, affords, next to a trial of the medicine itself, the best commentary upon its virtues, and the best recommendation which can be offered to those who are unacquainted with it.

Extract of a letter received from a gentleman in Boston, who had suffered severely from Indigestion for three years. 'During this time I suffered very much from mental depression, constant pain in the head and breast, and side, sharp shooting pains over almost the whole system—the food that I ate seemed to pass into my lungs and there remain, giving me great pain attended with a strong degree of heat. Att mes I suffered so much from the pain of indigestion as to be confined to the bed for two or three days. During one of these most severe attacks, I was induced by the advice of a friend to try your Vegetable Medicine. In the course of a few weeks I found myself much better, and by the time I had taken two bottles, considered myself wholly free from the complaint. I continue, on the least feeling of any thing like indigestion or pressure on the stomach, to take about a tablespoonful of it which, in the course of a few hours, completely restores me. It has had with me a very wonderful effect in strengthening the stomach and invigorating the whole system, and judging by my own case I consider it in all diseases connected with the digestive organs to be a very valuable medicine

It has been found singularly efficacious in cases of the most obstinate headache.

It is put up in large bottles containing a pound and a half: and sold at seventy-five cents each, by Jonathan P. Hall, Jr., No. 1, Union street, John P. Whitwell, Milk street, John J. Brown, near Boylston Market, Erastus St. Holden, near the Western Avenue, Richard A. Newell, Summer stt, Boston, Samuel Kidder & Co., Charlestown, E. G. Lemon, Roxbury. oeply† f 8

PATENT CORK FOR COLLARS AND SADDLES.—The American Cork Company offer for sale, ground or grated Cork for stuffing Horse Collars and Saddles. The utility of the article has been fully tested, the past year, in a great number of cases where horses' breasts had become sore and inflamed by the use of the ordinary collars.

It has been proved beyond a doubt, to surpass every other substance that has yet been known or used for that purpose. The fact that it will not become matted, and is a non-conductor of heat, must convince every person of its value. But one farther advantage is, these Collars fit the breast of a horse immediately on their application, which is not the case with any other material. A certificate as to the utility of the article, is subjoined.

"We the subscribers, having made or used the Cork Horse Collars, made from ground or grated Cork, are fully satisfied that they surpass collars made of hair, wool, or any other substance whatever that we have been acquainted with, for the following reasons:—first, the elasticity is sufficient; secondly, it being a non-conductor of heat, does not heat the breast as all other substances do; thirdly, it fits itself to any horse's breast immediately on its application; and fourthly, it has cured every horse's breast we have applied it to, or known it to be done."

Boston, Sept. 3d, 1833.

Signed, PETER STEVENS, Stage Proprietor.
HENRY A. HOVEY, Manufacturer.
E. W. LAWSON, Stage Agent

These Baths are medicated according to the disease—they are now open to the public, and will be administered to families or individuals, under the direction, or according to the prescription of their physician.

Dr Mott will undertake the cure (or the relief) of all Chronic Diseases, Wounds, (however of long standing) Ulcers, Abscesses, internal or external, Gout, Rheumatism, Tic Doloroux, Cancers, Imposthumes, and other complaints incident to the human frame.

Dr M. will personally superintend the various Baths, and attend to the prescriptions of the Medical Gentlemen in behalf of their patients.

Without boasting of the cures that have been performed, or pretending to any wonderful knowledge, he would merely say, he would be happy to render the Baths, and the system of Medicine itself, useful to the high Medical Talent of Boston, leaving it to an enlightened public to decide.

Those spacious premises have been fitted up with great expense, at the corner of Lynde and Cambridge streets, and other places have been purchased to be fitted up as auxiliary establishments. It may be proper to state, that no mercury or mineral preparations are used—no hot medicines, or cold water—but it is, in fact, a union of the simples of the Materia Medica with the Herbal Medica—therefore called Vegetable.

Teeth and Corns, he will undertake to extract scientifically; Bunions on the joints, compound or cancerous Toe Nails, and other diseases of the Feet, diseases of the Eyes, &c.

Male Patients only attended to by me. Mrs Mott, the Females and Children. No out door cases can be attended to.

N. B. Agents may purchase Patent Rights for villages, towns, or cities, in any part of the United States, with a guarantee exclusive—together with the Medicines and Book of Directions, by application to DR MOTT, corner of Lynde and Cambridge streets.

MARSHALL'S FLUID EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA, for the cure of Obstinate Eruptions of the Skin, Pimples or Pustules on the Face, Biles which arise from an impure habit of body, Scaly Eruptions, Pains in the bones, Chronic Rheumatism, Tetter, Scrofula or King's Evil, White Swellings, Syphilitic Symptons, and all disorders arising from an impure state of the blood, produced either by a long residence in a hot and unhealthy climate, the injudicious use of mercury, &c.

It has been a desideratum with Physicians and Patients, to obtain an active preparation of Sarsaparilla in a convenient and portable form. Since Dr Hancock's publication in the London Medico-Botanical Transactions, and Mr Hodgson's recent Paper in the Journal of the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy—denying the efficacy, and asserting the inertness of any Decoctions, Syrups, or Compound Fluid Extracts made by long and continued boiling; I have been induced to prepare a Concentrated Compound Syrup of Sarsaparilla, by a process peculiar to myself; and, aided by a powerful hydraulic press, have succeeded in obtaining a more efficient and active preparation than has ever heretofore been manufactured.

This very convenient and active Syrup is now with confidence offered to the Medical Profession and the public, as possessing in an eminent degree all the active properties of the Sarsaparilla in its most concentrated form.

One pint of the Syrup thus prepared contains the active principle of two pounds of Sarsaparilla. One fluid ounce is equal in strength to one quarter of the decoction of the London Pharmacopœia or the Lisbon Diet Drink.

This article possesses an agreeable and pleasant flavor—and the most delicate and fastidious stomach will bear it conveniently.

BOSTON TRUSS MANUFACTORY.—J. F. FOSTER, Agent.—The subscriber having mostly relinquished his former business, will now attend to the business of making, fitting, and repairing Trusses. After having tested Trusses of his own make for fifteen years past, and during that time has been employed in making and fitting Trusses for various individuals, which have proved very efficient in most cases, especially where they have strictly followed his directions, and now offers his services to those who stand in need of the article in confidence of giving entire satisfaction to those who may please to call on him, as he will attend to them personally.

Among the variety of Trusses made and sold by J. F Foster, are Patent Elastic Spring Trusses, with Spring Pads, Trusses without steel springs. These give relief in all cases of rupture, and in a large portion produce a perfect cure. They can be worn day and night. Improved Hinge and Pivot Trusses—Umbilical Spring Trusses, and Trusses with ball and socket joints.

The subscriber in consequence of the increasing demand for his Trusses, has now in his employ, a man of as much ingenuity as any other to be found in the country, for the purpose of making the Truss springs and parts belonging to the same—and one that has served a regular apprenticeship at the business, in Scotland.

New springs inserted in Trusses at a small charge.

Price of Trusses, from two to eight dollars.

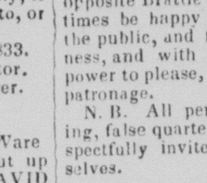

Price of new covering, from one to three dollars.

Trusses loaned gratis, whilst others are undergoing repairs. All the Trusses made and sold by J. F. F. will be warranted to the purchaser.

The Subscriber is also agent for other Truss makers, and will keep all the American approved kinds on hand. Place of business, 388 Washington street, up stairs, directly opposite Boylston Market, name on the door of a separate and suitable apartment. mar 20.

DOMESTIC INSTRUMENT.—The habitual and indiscriminate use of purgative drugs can only afford a temporary relief, by unnaturally stimulating the digestive organs, which they exhaust of their secretions, and thereby render them incapable of performing, even with this repeated stimulus, their proper functions with the degree of energy requisite to support the body in health. The great utility of Lavements or Domestic Clysters, the use of which has so long been practised in France and England, is at length so far established in the opinions of the medical profession in this country, as generally to form part of the directions of our most eminent practitioners to their dyspeptic or bilious patients. Hitherto one of the greatest obstacles to the general adoption of Domestic Injections has been the inconvenient construction and unwieldy size of the instruments employed for this purpose. This instrument may be used by an invalid without assistance, and is so portable as to admit of being carried in the coat pocket without inconvenience. The flexible tube, commonly employed for apparatus of this kind, from its want of durability, having proved a source of great inconvenience, particularly to persons residing in the country, a new kind of tubing is manfactured under the protection of a patent, which is essentially different from that of any other person, and is equally durable and perfect in all climates. For sale by the quantity, or at retail, at 46 Milk street, opposite Federal street.

DR. WARNER'S PURIFYING VEGETABLE POWDERS, OR FAMILY BITTERS.

Yielding its strength to Wine or Water.

As a security against counterfeits, the label will be signed by the wholesale agent, PARKER BARNES.—Likewise the steel plate will be observed, as there is a spurious article, which has been offered to the public.

In the spring of the year, every one is troubled more or less with a propensity to sleep, and by the use of this corrective it can be obviated entirely. For purifying and eradicating all kinds of humours from the blood, even if they appear externally in the face, or any part of the body, it is much better and far more efficacious than any external application; in fact I seldom knew it to fail in proving effectual. The patient will find it operates more in the blood than any other preparation they ever referred to: it is far better than salts, sulphur, cream tartar, or any preparation of this kind, for when the blood is once purified with this corrective, it emains in an even temperature through the summer months. For a foul stomach, jaundice, general debility, weakness of limbs, want of appetite, billious and liver complaints, headache, stupor, &c. For the catarrh, which is generally occasioned by the impure state of the blood, there is nothing extant that has proved so efficacious as this purifying corrective. For all the above complaints it is seldom known to fail in proving an effectual remedy.

It is really worth the public attention, as every one is aware of the unpleasant, dull, heavy feeling, which the spring of the year produces; and by the use of this corrective, it can be obviated entirely. Every one who makes use of the above preparation, will be astonished at the mild and gentle effect it has on the blood.

CERTIFICATES.

This is to certify, that I have been troubled in the spring and summer seasons with a dull and stupid feeling, which very much troubled me while about my business, and by taking some of Warner's Purifying Powders, I have found it perfect remedy, and with confidence recommend it to others who may be similarly affected. ELIAS PIKE.

Boston, April 16th, 1832.

Joseph Moore, of Boston, certifies that he has taken Warner's Family Corrective, or Purifying Powder for purifying the blood, and curing of jaundice, and likewise removing the propensity to sleep, and has found it an effectual remedy.

April 1st, 1832.

I hereby certify that I have taken Warner's Vegetable Purifying Powders for the cure of the jaundice; likewise for purifying the blood, and removing this propensity for sleep which I am always troubled with in the spring of the year. From the benefit which I have received for the above complaints, I cordially recommend it to all that may be similarly affected.

JOHN B. FINN.

Feeling grateful for the benefit which I have received from taking Dr Warner's Vegetable Bitters, for the cure of the jaundice, weakness of the limbs, want of appetite, indigestion, &c. do recommend it as a safe and efficacious remedy for the above complaints

P. COFFIN.

Boston, March 1st, 1833.

Other reference of its efficacy may be had by calling on the agent. To be had at wholesale of my sole agent in this city, PARKER BARNES, No 424 Washington street, and retailed by all the principal Druggists, in Boston and vicinity. 6m—ap 11

BLACKING.—Liquid, Paste, and ponge—also a leather preservative, comprising all the kinds now in use, are manufactured and for sale at the Blacking Establishment, head of the Western Avenue.

KNAPP'S JAPAN LIQUID BLACKING, three sizes, in stone jugs. The proprietor has the pleasure to inform the public that from long experience in the business, he has been able to make great improvements in the article, so much so, it is believed, no other kind approaches near it in quality, with the exception of Day & Martin's, which by many is not considered so good. A small quantity, made expressly for retailing, now on hand, and offered to the public on reasonable terms—warraned to give the most entire satisfaction. The smallest orders gratefully received.

KNAPP'S CONDENSED OIL PASTE BLACKING is offered as above, by the single box, dozen, or cask This article is pronounced by the most competent and disinterested judges to be superior to any other kind now known in this market; and warranted to give satisfaction, or money refunded to the purchaser. It is prepared with oil, and its shining qualities are believed to be unequalled. It will be sold on liberal terms, and to wholesale dealers in the article, the discount will be satisfactory.

KNAPP'S JAPAN SPONGE BLACKING, for sale as above, by the barrel, gallon, or dozen. It is sufficient to say of this article, it sustains the highest reputation of any article of the kind manufactured in this part of the country, and it is the intention of the manufacturer to spare no pains or expense in the preparation of the same.

KNAPP'S LEATHER PRESERVATIVE, for sale as above, (indispensable to every man who regards his health or economy.) First, it renders the leather impervious to water, also makes it soft and pliable, and of course prevents it from cracking, which is the first symptoms of decay in leather. It is believed that one pair of boots with this article applied properly, will wear as long as two with nothing of the kind used on them; and for the preservation of leather, should be used in summer as well as winter. july 22

ENOS WILDER, ENGINEER AND PLUMBER, No 49 Chatham street, four doors from No 19 Merchants' Row, continues to manufacture Beer, Cider, Soda and Mineral Water Pumps, with improvements—making them superior to any now in use made of metal—warranted not to carode or injure the flavor of the liquor, and at less than half their former prices.

Hydraulic and common Pumps of every description, for hot or cold water, from the highest to the lowest prices. Liquor Pumps of a new construction, and far superior to any heretofore manufactured—small size, pure tin pipes.

Engine work—Hose Screws, Screw-cutting and nice Brass work of every description, done in the best style at short notice Also—patterns for Brass Castings made to order. All orders will be executed with neatness and dispatch, at the lowest cash prices.

IRON SAFES.—S. A. & W G. PIERCE, Agents for selling Gaylor's Patent Double Fire Proof Wrought Iron Chests and Safes, 370 Washington street, have now on hand a large assortment comprising all the sizes and kinds which are calculated for the use of Banks, Insurance Offices, Town Records, Merchants, and others.

The above Chests are double throughout in all their parts, with double doors, each secured with Chubb's Patent Detector Locks, which cannot be picked; and the Chest is as completely Fire Proof as any vault or chest can be made. Proof of which can be seen by those who will take the trouble to call at the Agent's Store and examine a Double Chest which has passed through a very severe fire, and preserved a valuable lot of books and papers, belonging to John S. Abbott, Esq., whose name is attached to the following certificate:

"This is to certify, that one of the above described Double Safes, which I purchased of the Messrs S. A. & W. G. Pierce, was in my office in this town when the office was burned on the 2d day of November last—the building was of two stories, wooden, and large. The Safe weighing 700 lbs fell from the second story into the cellar, and was exposed to an intense heat for nearly three hours. It was for a long time literally red hot. It contained all the account books, notes, and court papers, that were in my office; and no paper was in the least degree burnt or rendered illegible.

JOHN S. ABBOTT.

Thomaston, January 8th, 1834."

The above Chest, and some of the papers which were in it at the time of the fire, are now at the Agent's Store, corner of Essex and Washington streets, and any individual or corporation who are about purchasing Iron Safes for the protection of their books and papers, will find it for their advantage to call and examine them, and they will be perfectly satisfied that Gaylor's Double Safes are what they are represented to be—FIRE PROOF; and they will be still further satisfied that none other but the Double Safe would stand a severe fire.

Gaylor's Double Safes are a patent article, and can only be legally purchased in this city of S. A. & W. G. PIERCE, who are his authorized Agents. tf jan 31

PURE BEAR'S OIL may be had by the groce dozen, or single bottle, of A. BOYDEN, Hancock street.

As in all cases, so especially in this, Venders, if they wish to secure the patronage of the public, should be extremely cautious not to sell an article for the Hair which tends to counteract rather than to assist nature.

The virtues of Bear's Oil have been too long tested to need any eulogium; and at this time, no one can doubt of its being the very best article for strengthening and promoting the growth of the Hair. An honest prejudice against the use of Bear's Oil has long existed, arising from two causes—the improper method of purifying it, and the imposition upon the public of a spurious article. That this prejudice may be wholly removed, this article now offered is warranted the pure Oil, rendered more pleasant by the addition of a little Perfume—and the possibility of its injuring the Hair is entirely precluded by the manner in which it has been purified. To prevent fraud, the genuine is enclosed in two wrappers, the inside one being signed Arnold Boyden. aug 15

A CARD.—HENRY DAVIS, at the Academy of Music, 23 and 29 Joy's Building, respectfully offers his services to the public, as a Tuner and Repairer of Piano Fortes.

Having been engaged for more than six years in the most extensive Piano Forte Manufactory in this city, and devoted much time and attention to the study of his profession, he trusts he shall give entire satisfaction to all who may please to favor him with their patronage.

For the convenience of his friends at the south part of the city, a slate for orders will be kept at the store of Mr William Brown, corner of Eliot and Washington streets.

Old Piano Fortes entrusted to his care will be faithfully repaired and kept in good order.

We, the undersigned, certify that Mr Henry Davis has been in our employ for six years past, and that he is qualified to tune and repair Pianos.
